

SCHOOL CHILDREN GAMBLER AT FAIR

Indignation In Jersey City
Over Doings at Fourth Regt. Entertainment.

PUPILS WON WHISKEY

In One Instance a Small Boy Uncorked Bottle and Comrades Drank.

Because children of tender years were permitted to play gambling devices at the recent fair of the Fourth Regiment, Jersey City, has adopted a resolution forbidding the distribution of tickets of admission to any form of entertainment among the pupils of the public schools. These disclosures have created something of a sensation in Jersey City, although the fair ended ten days ago, it lasted from Oct. 15 to Oct. 21. On one afternoon all the school children in town were admitted free. At the fair the children found gambling devices running openly. Members of the regiment it is said, solicited the children to risk their dimes at the "wheels of fortune" and other games. Occasionally a dollar could be won or ten cents, and with it either a bottle of whiskey, a package of groceries or some other bonus. In at least one case it is said, a little boy in knickerbockers won a winning chance, pulled the cork in the bottle of red liquor and shared the stuff with a lot of his companions. The fair was in general charge of Capt. B. F. Moore, quartermaster of the regiment, and a retired furniture dealer, with Capt. George T. Vickers, commanding Co. H, who is also Assistant Promotor of the Plaza of Hudson County. They say Capt. Vickers while enforcing the law against gambling in pool-rooms and card rooms, permitted the fair of the regiment in which he holds office to be run "wide open." The resolution adopted by the Board of Education will hurt various theatrical companies which have long made a practice of distributing reduced-rate tickets for "school children's matinees" among the Jersey City pupils.

CONSUMPTIVE ENDS LIFE.

James McCormack, of No. 41 West Fifty-third street, who had been a consumptive patient for two years in the hospital on North Brother Island, committed suicide in his cot there to-day by drinking carbolic acid.

SHE SEIZED THIEF AND DIED OF FRIGHT

Mrs. George Bowne Dropped Lifeless After Tussle in Her Home.

Mrs. George Bowne, sixty years old, dropped dead in her home in Washington, N. J., early to-day, after grappling with a burglar who was in her room.

There has been an epidemic of burglars in Washington and for the past two weeks not a night has passed that there have not been from four to six robberies.

Mrs. Bowne, greatly frightened because so many of her neighbors had been robbed, was awake watching her home early this morning. Her husband and daughter were in rooms on the upper floor.

Saw Man Stealing Silver.
Hearing a noise in the dining-room of her house, the old woman went to investigate, and found a man looting the sideboard of a quantity of silver.

With a scream she leaped at the man and seized him by the throat. He struggled to free himself, and then began beating her with his fists. Still the woman held on, screaming all the while.

Mrs. Bowne's daughter heard the screams and the noise of the fight. She came running in just as the mother fell to the floor. The daughter fell upon the man and caught him by the neck, but blows from him sent her to the door.

Robber Escaped.
The man then ran through the rear door and escaped.

When Mr. Bowne and the rest of the household came they found the daughter hysterical. Mrs. Bowne was apparently calm, but she was too weak to rise to her feet.

A physician was called, but before his arrival the old woman died. The physician said that fright had killed her.

MARCUS FOR SUPREME BENCH.
ALBANY, Nov. 10.—Gov. Higgins today appointed Surrogate Louis W.
Wass, of Buffalo, Supreme Court Justice in the Eighth Judicial District in place of Edward W. Batch, who resigned.

THREATS AGAINST JERSEY PRISONERS

Special Guard at Plainfield Jail for Men Accused by Girls.

(Special to The Evening World.)
PLAINFIELD, N. J., Nov. 10.—Five men, one of whom is a negro, are locked up in the jail here under heavy guard on the charges of four girls, ranging in age from seven to fourteen. The prisoners are Richard Matti, 64 years old, John Galbraith, 43, William Ross, 37, Peter Linder, 46, and Thomas Holland, colored, aged 20. All are married and the first two have grown-up children.

The girls are Cathleen Ennis, daughter of James Ennis, Anna Ross, daughter of Mrs. Mary Ross, Rose Green, daughter of Lawrence Green, and Mary Regan, daughter of Daniel Regan. All the prisoners except Galbraith have confessed, the police say.

Rev. Father Bogan, rector of St.
Mary's Church, got the first inkling of the matter that led to the arrests. In the presence of their mothers last night the girls made full statements, giving names and dates, covering six months in the presence of the priest, Judge Runyon, Police Chief Kelly and Justice Moshier.

Judge Runyon drew up the warrants for the arrest of the accused before he left St. Mary's rectory. This morning the men were taken in patrol wagons to Headquarters and after a preliminary hearing remanded without bail.

The fathers of the little girls swear vengeance and the police are taking every precaution to prevent any rioting in front of the jail.

DAUGHTER BORN TO NIXON'S WIDOW.

The Fourth Child of the Late Speaker of the Assembly.

(Special to The Evening World.)
WESTFIELD, N. Y., Nov. 10.—A daughter was born to Mrs. Myrtle Nixon, widow of the late Speaker S.
Fred Nixon, at her home here yesterday.
This posthumous daughter is the fourth child born to Mrs. Nixon, there being at the time of the late Speaker's death Oct. 10 two sons, Samuel and George, and a daughter, Dorothy.

Mrs. Nixon was before her marriage Miss Myrtle H. Redfield, of Westfield, her husband's birthplace and home town. Speaker Nixon died Oct. 10 after falling to rally from an operation for appendicitis.
